

North West Together We Can Network

Learning Exchange Seminar

Tuesday 9th February 2010

Registration and Refreshments 10.30am Seminar 11am – 2.45pm

Communities in Control: What Does AI Have To Offer?

Hosted by Cumbria County Council at Riverside Hotel,
Kendal

Programme

10.30 am Registration and refreshments.

11am Prompt Start: Welcome and Introductions:

Stuart Pate, Head of Community, Cumbria County Council and Eve Davidson, Programme Manager, NWTWC.

11.15 am Judith Emanuel, Appreciative Inquiry Practitioner: Appreciative Inquiry; Having a Go – telling stories of success.

11.45 am What is AI? Case Studies - 3 Minute Introductions:

Dave Broome, Principal Neighbourhood Renewal Officer and Andy Jones, Neighbourhood Renewal Officer, Rochdale MBC: Lower Falinge in Focus.

Linda Cheetham – Sharples, Scrutiny Support, Health, Wellbeing and Social Care Scrutiny, Salford City Council: Building on Success for a Smoke Free Salford.

Councillor Mary Robinson, Chair, Scrutiny Committee and Darren Cranshaw, Community Engagement Manager, South Ribble Borough Council: You Matter in Broadfield – Learning for Members.

Brian Morris, Neighbourhood Development Officer, Eden, Cumbria County Council: AI as Professional Development.

12.30 pm Lunch and networking.

1.15 pm Case study workshops – world café style.

2.30 pm Summary and concluding remarks.

2.45pm Finish.

STOCKPORT Neighbourhoods^{NW}
METROPOLITAN BOROUGH COUNCIL The power to improve your neighbourhoods

nwiep^{ne}
north west improvement and efficiency partnership

National Empowerment
Partnership